Jakarta, Indonesia

My name is Daffa Zakirfahd Zanlee, and I am a student at UIN Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta with a strong interest in the field of digital marketing. Since 2023, I have been actively learning various aspects of digital marketing independently and through multiple online platforms. My learning activities include participating in bootcamps, webinars, and online courses on social media strategy, content creation, SEO, and digital advertising.

In addition, I have developed skills in performance marketing, including campaign optimization, data analysis, and paid advertising strategies to achieve measurable results. I am highly interested in getting involved in roles such as digital marketing strategist, content creator, social media management, and other related fields that can support my personal and professional growth. I am open to both Work from Office and remote job opportunities.
